

Product Vision

The Product Vision provides a central point of reference for ALL stakeholders of a product. The Product Vision is created by the Product Owner.

Great Product Visions have three components:

Simplicity: easy to understand by those with the appropriate background

Emotion: communicates a non-logical reason for the product

Urgency: puts time pressure on the creation and/or use of the product

